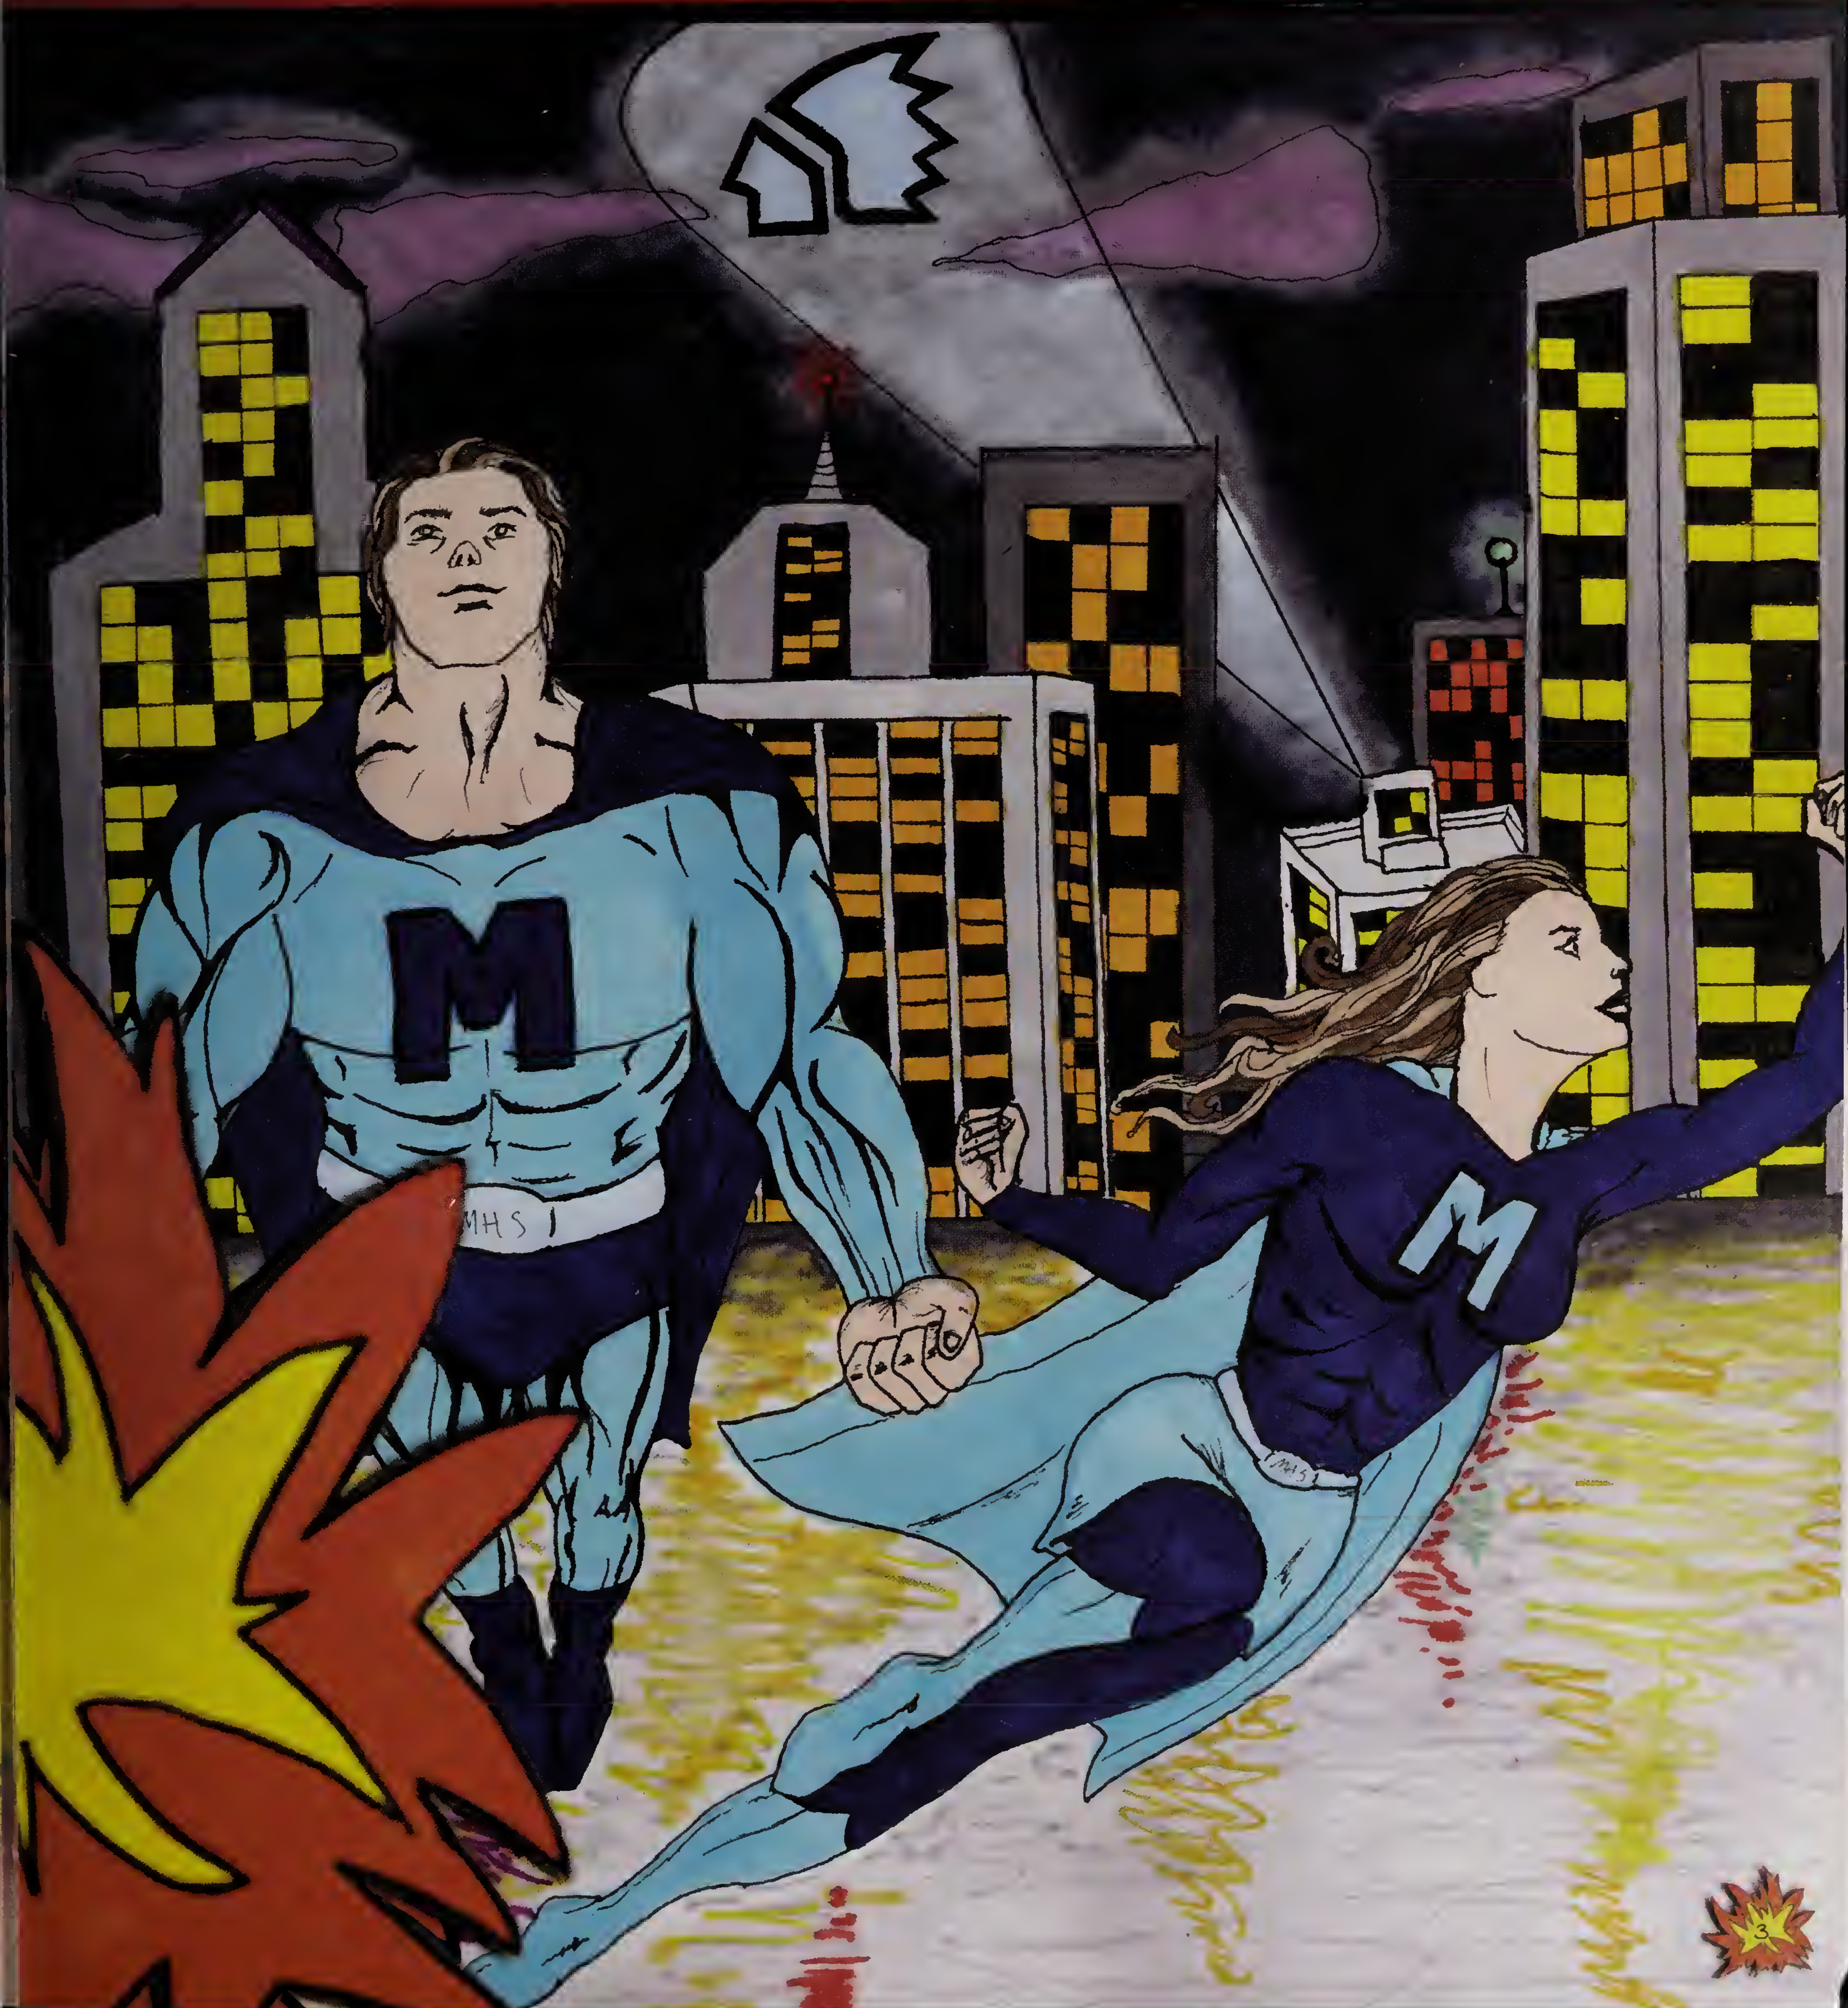
The Peak Volume 84

Each student at Medfield High School has a superhero within, and it's the high school years that make the powers come alive. The journey begins as a freshman, when we first begin realizing that there is potential within us that we have yet to discover. We tackle obstacles, learn how to channel our power, and learn from the moments when our super-abilities are still developing. By the end of our four year journey, we have grown up. We know what it takes to be a hero when we leave MHS. As superheroes, we understand Uncle Ben's words to Spider-Man... "With great power comes great responsibility"

UP, UP, AND AWAY

THE ADVENTURES OF MEDFIELD HIGH SCHOOL



To all of our teachers, mentors, family, and friends, thank you for making us the superheroes we are today. Throughout all of our many years together at MHS, we have overcome an array of adversities. We have ascended over "B $ E" cards, climbed out of a spitball infested science classroom, and shed a not so super status as a class. All of our many experiences have shaped us into model citizens. Class of 2009, it is time to go out into the real world and show our inner superhero.

Throughout the year, the superheroes of Medfield High School take breaks from crime-fighting to sit back and enjoy all the fun activities Medfield has to offer. Spirit week is always a favorite time of the year—dressing in crazy outfits, cheering at the pep rally, and closing out the festivities with the homecoming dance. The good times don't stop there; outside the school doors the superheroes come together to support their fellow heroes at events such as Fall Fest. It's these relaxing times that help them to recharge their powers for future superhero missions.

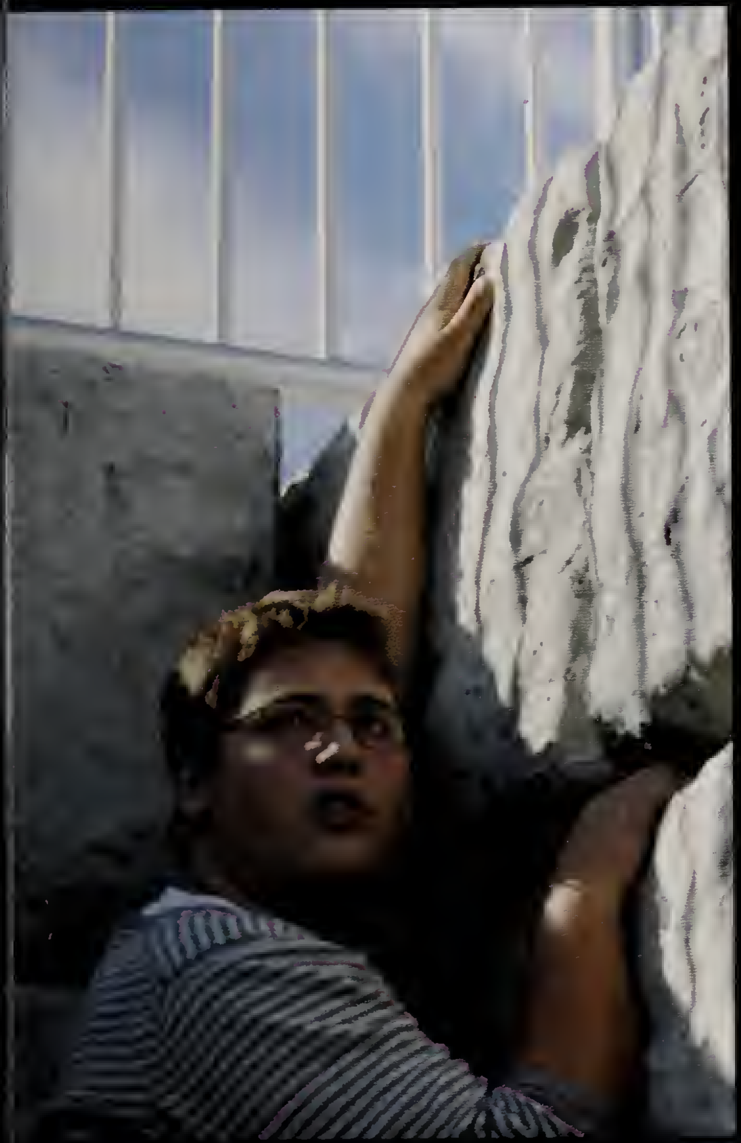
Kickin' it Back



Every morning our teachers opt for the visage of the mild-mannered professional instead of the caped superhero, but that does not mean that the feats which they accomplish are anything less than spectacular. They instill in us the knowledge and the courage it takes to go out into the world and face the obstacles we are sure to encounter. We look to heroes as examples of how to do what is right, and the moment each teacher steps foot in our school, they fulfill and exceed all our expectations. Our teachers prove that we don't need capes to be super.

If you were a superhero, who would your sidekick be?

"Superman, because he reminds me of me!" – Mr. Kinch

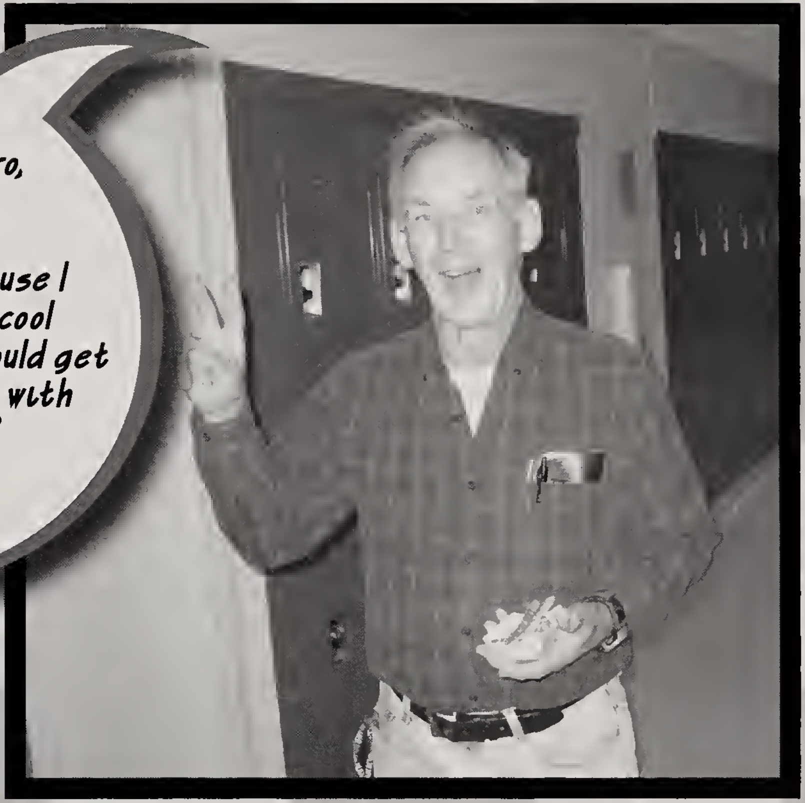
"Ted Williams, because he was one of the best hitters in baseball." – Mr. Johnson

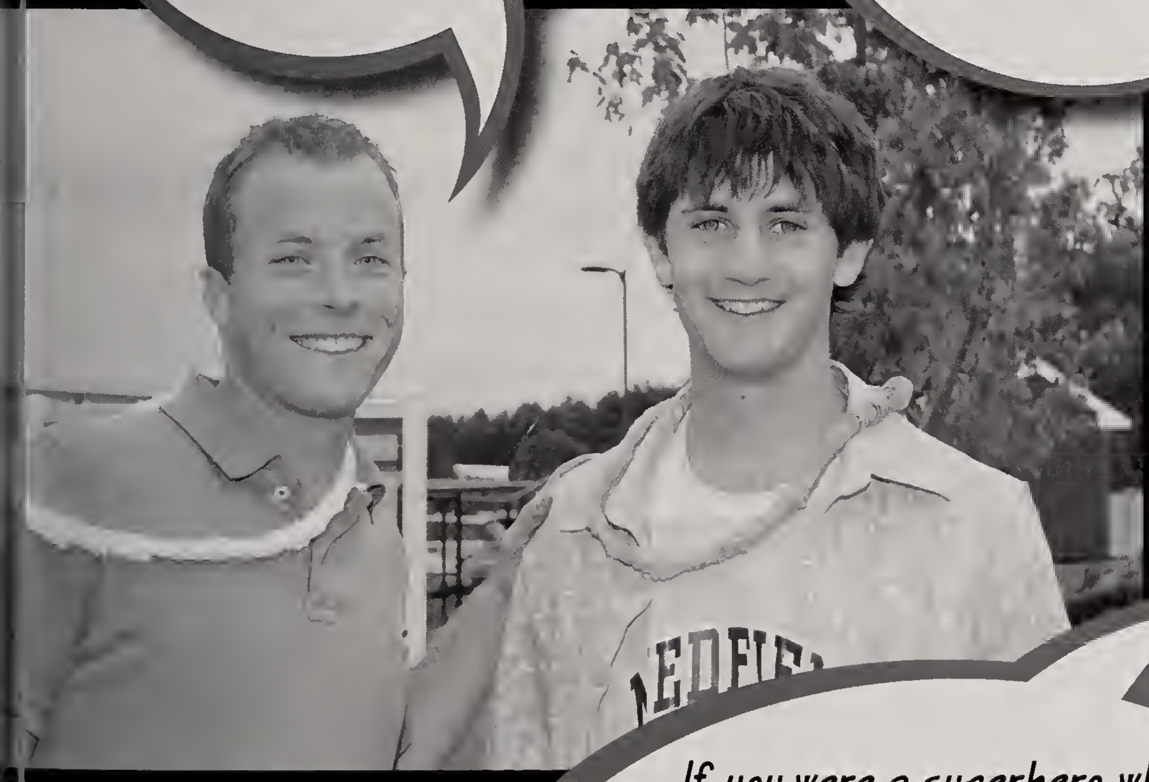
If you could have any superpower, which would you choose?

"I would want to fly. It would be really cool to fly." – Mr. Delery

If you were a superhero, who would you be?

"I would be Batman, because I would want all kinds of cool gadgets and cars, and I would get to live in a big mansion with the Batcave in it!" –Mr. Salka





If you were a superhero, who would you want as your damsel in distress?

"Well, I would say my wife, but i think it's more like the other way around." – Mr. Panciocco

Mrs. Tobiasson,
HANGING UP HER CAPE...

"Mrs. Tobbiason really cares about her students. She is an extremely nice lady" -Joey Thibeault, junior

Seniors, Lisa McElhenny & Maria Salvo exclaimed, "We likethe creativity she puts into her classes and her fun nature!"

"Such a funny woman with a terrific sense of humor. I love how she can walk into a room and start singing Amy Winehouse songs. Love her!" -Geena Matuson, senior

Over the last twenty years, Mrs. Susan Tobiasson has been a necessary figure within the Medfield Art Program. Although she is known as a member of the high school community, Mrs. Tobiasson has taught at Wheelock, Dale Street, and even at Memorial School before an art program was established.

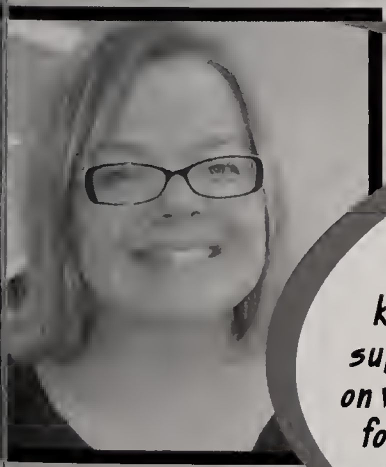
Avidly involved in the high school, Mrs. Jones explains that, "Mrs. Tobiasson always knows what's going on in the school and with the kids." As an art teacher, she is extremely personable and familiar with the students and their families. Many enjoy her knowledge of siblings and family ties. Because Mrs. Tobiasson is a member of the Medfield community, she cares a lot about the history of the town, families, and staff members.

Although her main passion is art, Mrs. Tobiasson has also been actively involved in the Medfield Garden Club. Bringing the school and community together, "Art in Bloom" ties together her passion for student artwork and gardening. Every March, student artwork inspires the club members to create flower arrangements to be displayed cohesively with the pieces. Mrs. Tobiasson is always looking for new ways to create a bridge between the community and the school.

Always seen around the school, Katie Tella, a senior, recalls, "Every time I see Mrs. Tobiasson in the hallway, she greets me with a large, whimsical hello and brightens my day." The students love her creative classes and the kind heart she brings to the classroom. After twenty years of working in the Medfield Public School system, Mrs. Tobiasson has dedicated herself to the community and her students. Although she will be missed by her students, Mrs. Jones reassures, "I'm sure she'll stay active in the art community."

UP, AND AWAY!

"She is the most gracious and kind hearted person I know! She cares immensely for her students and for the commuinty. Mrs. T has enriched the lives of so man and will always be fondly thought of"
-MRS. DREW



"Mrs. Drew and I started the same year, and Mrs. Tobiasson always knows what's going on in the school and with the kids. She gets to know people in a way that isn't superficial. She's very active in the community and on weekends and is a great bridge to the community for the school. Mrs. Tobiasson's enthusiasm for the arts is endless. I'm sure she'll stay active in the art community." -MRS. JONES

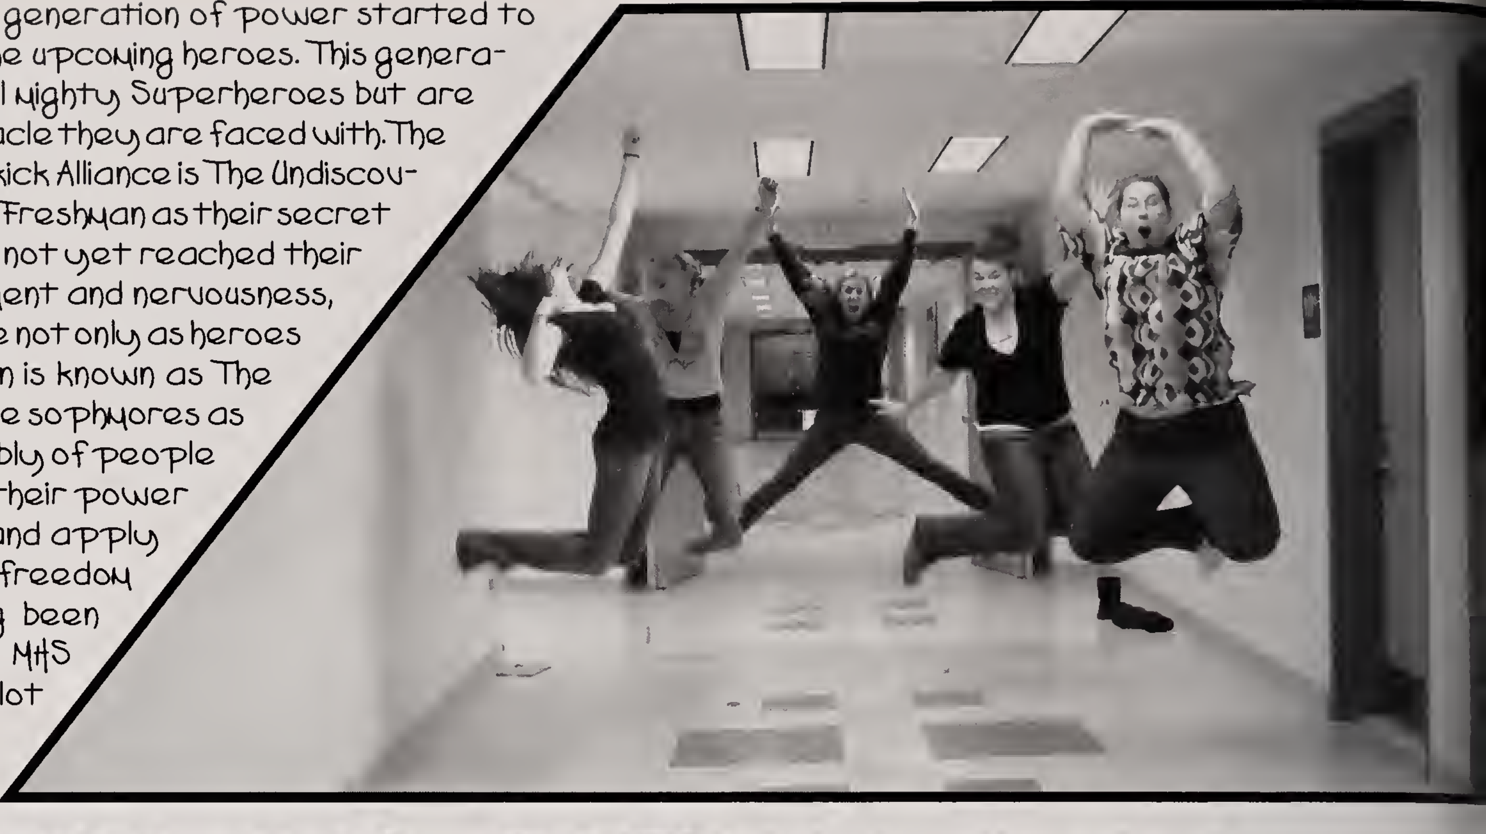
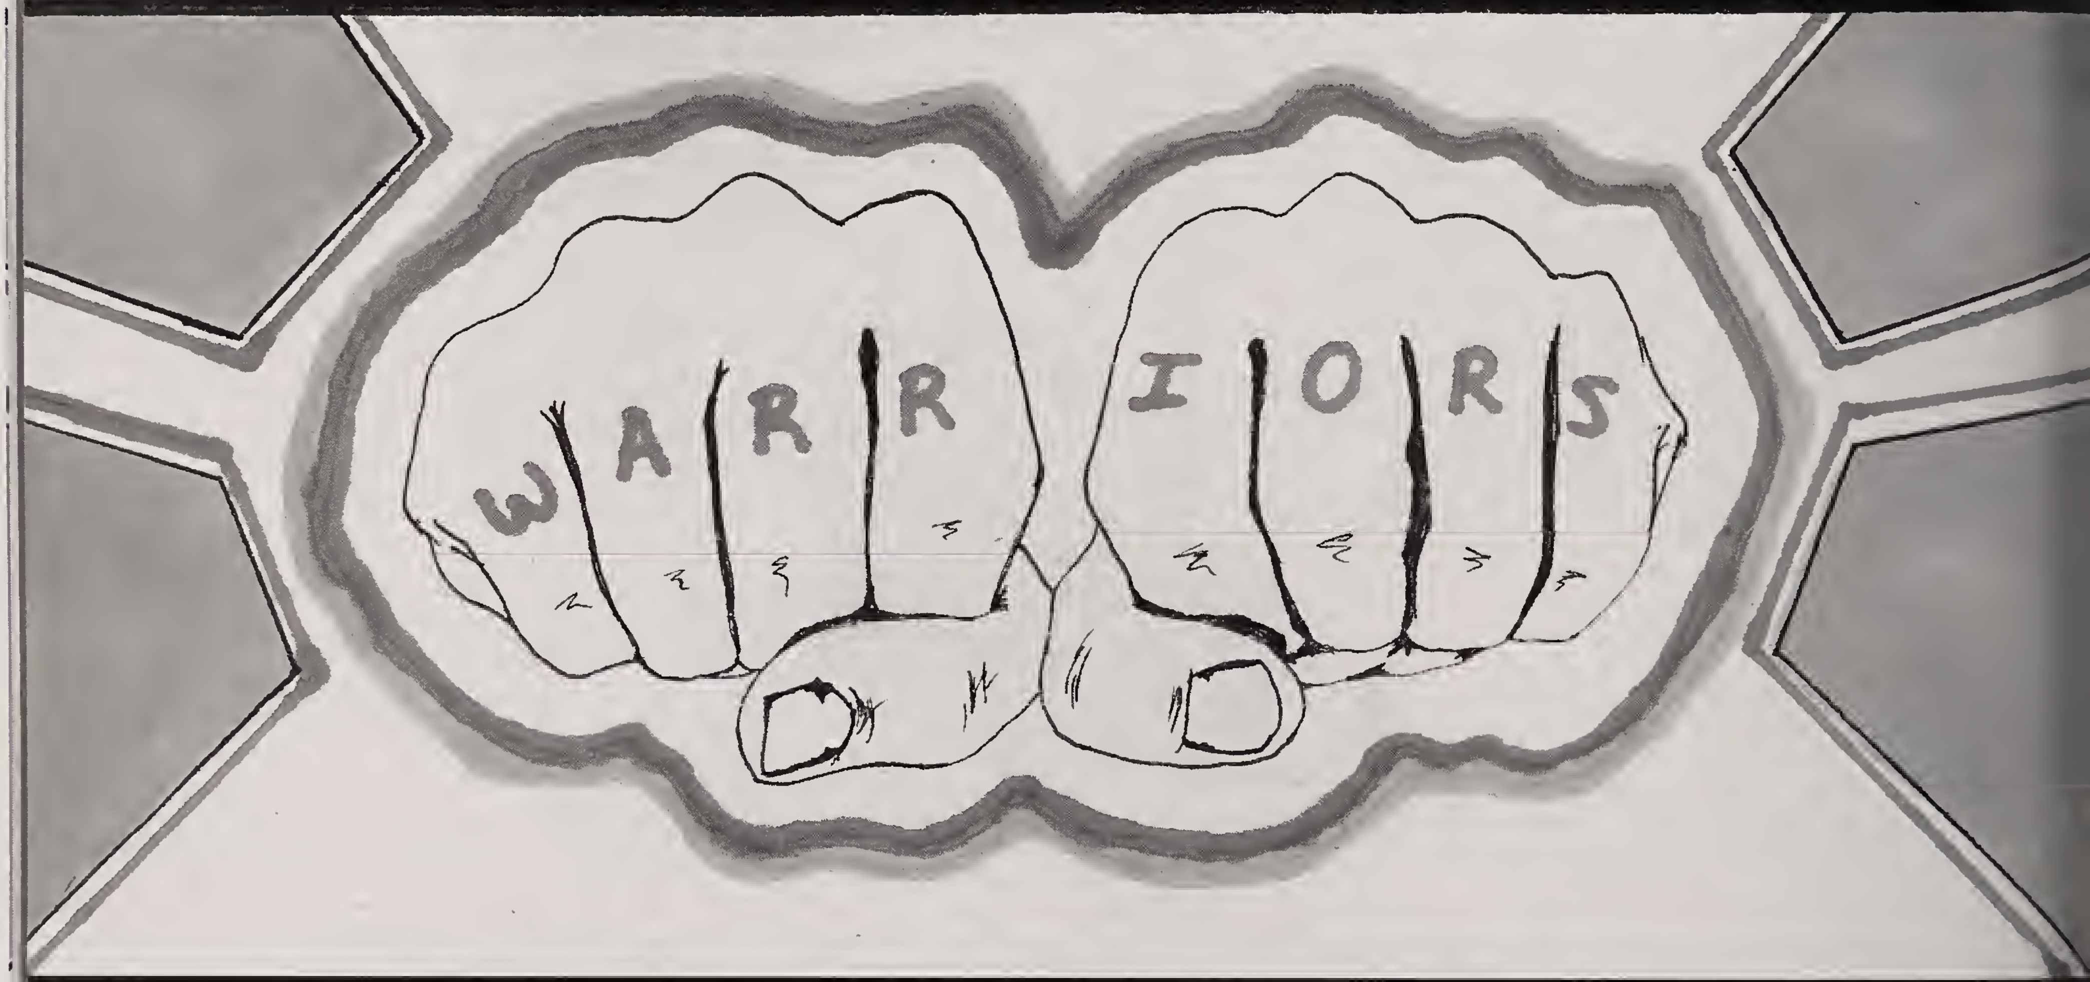
In the year 2008-2009, a new generation of power started to arise, widening the horizon for the upcoming heroes. This generation may not be quite like the all mighty Superheroes but are prepared to conquer any obstacle they are faced with. The newest addition to the MHS Sidekick Alliance is The Undiscovered Powers, also known as the Freshman as their secret identity. This group of kids have not yet reached their full potential, are full of excitement and nervousness, and are figuring out who they are not only as heroes but people. The next generation is known as The Heroes in Training, also seen as the sophmores as thier secret identity. This assembly of people have already figured out what their power is but are unsure of how to use and apply it. They are excited to get more freedom and feel more confident having been through the first year of the MHS Sidekick Alliance but still have a lot to learn from their superiors.





The final of the three physically powerful but naive units, waiting anxiously for their time to shine, is The Sidekicks, otherwise known as the Juniors as their secret identity. This group has endured tough years of finding themselves and their powers, learning how to use their skills, and are now preparing for their final year, having to live up to the strong, powerful Superhero Seniors. This year is the most important; The underclassmen will decide who they will be as Superheroes.

COUNCIL
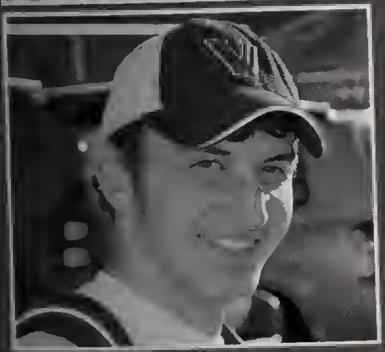
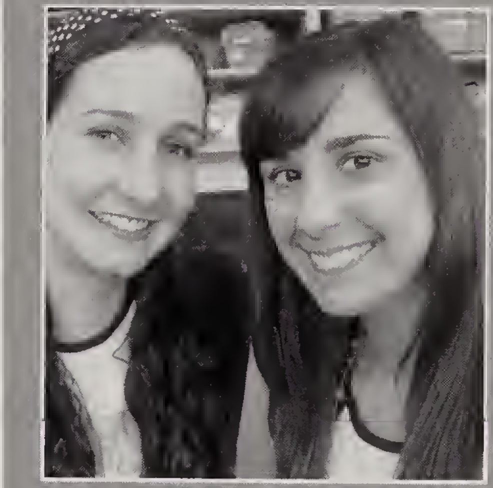
WEDNESDAY



These years are tough ones, making them stronger, building them up as people, and allowing them to be individuals.

Luckily, they have the Superheroes to look up to, and they are alright waiting on the side for now.



Be Intimidating!

Take all of our advice to heart, If you truly want to be prepared for...MHS SIDEKICK ALLIANCE!

They are okay watching the Heroes soar over the town of Medfield, waiting for their chance to make a difference.

Keep Family Close!

In an intergalactic world where heroes are born everyday, they unite together and harness their abilities and potential: from shredding strings and tearing up canvases to painting masterpieces with their words. They battle the cold streets of life, debate the facts, and go undercover in the student government. They read the classic tales and learn the philosophies of the ancient worlds and the worlds of today. These heroes and heroines lead busy lives but somehow find time to partake in the activities which strengthen their powers and unite them as one.

TWISTED

The superhero league of fall sports has kept it's reputation of excellence. The student athletes of Medfield High School have shown strength and power not only in the classroom but also on the playing field. Winning back to back titles, Medfield High has flown above expectations. The afterschool life at Medfield is all about training the athletes to defeat the enemy. The Dover-Sherborn football team, the # 1 enemy, was defeated by the warriors in a quarrel on Thanksgiving day with their immense strength and powerful skills. Medfield High School takes it sports to infinity and beyond.

Congratulations Brendan!
Your pilgrimage through Medfield High School was a tour de force for your family. A compassionate, thoughtful and loving boy who became the "Bod Man" an equally lovable person but taller and, may your family say, more handsome.You have impressed us at every turn, handling the ups and downs of high school with a grace and it must be said, with style. You dance, you smile and you excite your family. How do we thank you? Will four years of hanging around the student union and having your Fridays off suffice?Remember…if you get tired, pull over… if you get hungry, eat something. Bren, you are so much more than just a number, you are Mr. Medfield!
We love you ad infinitum.

We are excited for you, but we will miss you terribly, Devin. In every way, you are the finest son we could have ever hoped for. Dear Callie, I could not have wished for a better sister. Even though I annoyed you on a daily basis, and you certainly took that older sister role, I knew I could count on you to be there at the end of the day. It took us a few years to finally understand each other and even get close to the same maturity level, but we still got their eventually. You have been an amazing role model for me, and I hope to follow in your exact footsteps. But it's your turn now and I hope you have the best four years of your life. Dorothy Kane, at the age of 94, passed away as Medfield High School's oldest alumnus. She grew up in the family homestead on the corner of North and Winter Streets. As a seventh grader Dot was on the very first yearbook staff. Dot created the name "The Peak" for the high school yearbook, at the new school, now the Pfaff Center. Today, 84 years later, that name still exists and has been used for each yearbook.

– The Yearbook Staff

"We need a hero, courageous sacrificing people, setting examples for all of us. Everybody loves a hero, people line up for 'em, cheer for them, scream their names, and years later tell how they stood in the rain for hours just to get a glimpse of the one who told them to hold on a second longer. I believe there's a hero in all of us, that keeps us honest, gives us strength, makes us noble." Spider-Man 2.

More Than a Hero

Lisa Ryan Palermo

May 27, 1993-October 26, 2008

Born on May 27, 1993, Lisa Palermo was an incredibly loving, understanding and inspirational young woman. Throughout her life, Lisa was actively involved with raising money for Cystic Fibrosis. She participated in the Great Strides walk for CF and eventually started her own group called Lisa's Sunshine Squad. She was an avid Irish step dancer and a member of the Harney Academy of Irish Dance in Walpole for the past seven years. Lisa was also a member of the MHS Theater Society. In 2007, she was in the production of "The Desk Set" and helped with costumes in "Hello Dolly". Sadly, on October 26, 2008, Lisa lost her battle with Cystic Fibrosis. Even though she is not here today, she continues to inspire her friends and classmates of MHS. For this reason, we dedicate the 2009 Medfield High School Yearbook to her name.

> One thing that I really admired about Lisa was her strength. She never used her disease to make people feel sorry for her: instead she chose to help others in similar situations. Lisa is not physically with us today, I know she is still here. She will always be remembered as a bright, spontaneous, kind, and amazing person. Lisa always thought about others before herself, and it is clear that she will live on in our hearts forever.
> -Lindsay Ahegan, Sophomore

"The sun will shine brighter tomorrow"

Being friends with Lisa was a gift to me, and all of her other friends too. I will never forget the countless, amazing memories we've shared. Lisa was the bravest girl I knew, she always fought with courage against Cystic Fibrosis. But through everything she was still a very happy girl, always with a smile on her face, and she had the power to put a smile on anyone who would see her. I love that she was herself all the time, always acting funny and silly, but never cared what everyone else thought. Though her life was far too short, Lisa will continue to live on in my heart every day.
-Kelly DeRoche, Sophomore

Lisa was the type of person who could fit in with anyone. She could conform herself to so many different molds while still being herself. You could talk to her about anything and trust that she wouldn't tell anyone. She would always put other people before herself. She never complained about anything, even if she had been in the hospital for two months. Lisa wouldn't want us to grieve for her anymore because even though she isn't with us anymore, she's with Dan. Everyone always talks about her smile, she had a great smile, she was always smiling. Like her squad, she was a burst of sunshine. Now, whenever I feel the sun I think of her and know that someday even though it will still hurt, I will be able to accept that God needed another angel.
-Rachel Russell, Sophomore

Lisa Palermo was an amazing friend. No matter what, she always listened and tried to help with any problems. And even if she couldn't fix them, she always made you smile! Lisa always put others before herself and lived for each day, and each day she made wonderful memories. The sun will shine brighter tomorrow! In short, Lisa will continue to live on in my heart every day.
-Becca Leuders, Sophomore

Lisa was an incredibly loving, understanding, and inspirational friend. She always lived life to the fullest and made the best of situations. She touched the hearts of others with her love and laughter. I cannot remember one time that I was with her when I was not laughing. Her memory will live on in our hearts forever.
-Nicole Meafus, Sophomore

She surrounded herself with love from friends and family and in return she gave it, CF didn't stop her from being who she wanted to be. For this she was, and still is, my inspiration and although she is no longer with us her inspiration continues to grow through memories of her. So all I ask is that people remember her. Remember her for her kindness, her humor, her laugh, and her smile because all of those things are what make her inspirational.
-Marissa DeLuca, Sophomore
